Transition to Year 6

100 years of ANZAC

Lesson objective

Use the KWL chart to record your class findings about topics relating to 100 years of ANZAC.

National Curriculum Links

- History (identify questions to form a historical inquiry)

Key Fact

Between 2014 and 2018 Australia will commemorate the Anzac Centenary, marking 100 years since our nation's involvement in the First World War.

The Anzac Centenary is a milestone of special significance to all Australians. The First World War helped define us as people and as a nation.

Task

As a class, brainstorm various topics about the 100 years of ANZAC.

These could include:

- Albert Borella VC
- The Victoria Cross
- ANZAC Day
- Weapons in War
- Australian Allies.

Choose a topic as a class or in small groups and complete the KWL Chart.

Use the KWL Chart at the start of an inquiry. In the first column, write what you already know about the topic. In the second column, write what you want to know about the topic. After you have completed your inquiry, write what you learned in the third column.

Research your topic using books, the internet, and The Borella Ride Traveling Display.
